PART 3 PROCEDURES, LIMITATIONS AND EXCLUSIONS

29 Powers of the Insurer

- 29.1 The Insurer will have the right, but not the obligation, to control or direct the conduct of any claim or legal or other proceedings relating to any matter which may result in loss, damage, cost, expense or liability in respect of which the Insured is or may be insured under this policy and to require the Insured to settle, compromise or otherwise dispose of such claim or proceedings in such manner and upon such terms as the Insurer sees fit.
- 29.2 The Insured must not settle or admit liability for any claim, dispute or proceeding in respect of which he may be insured under this policy without the prior written consent of the Insurer.
- 29.3 In the event of the Insured Yacht becoming an actual, arranged or constructive total loss, the Insurer will, subject to the hull underwriters' rights in the matter, be entitled to request the Insured to abandon the Insured Yacht to the Insurer or to such other Person (including the world at large) as the Insurer will nominate. If the Insured does not abandon the Insured Yacht, having received such a request from the Insurer, the Insurer will not be responsible for any claim that could have been avoided had the Insured abandoned the Insured Yacht as described above.
- 29.4 The Insurer may appoint on behalf of the Insured lawyers, surveyors or experts with a view to advising the Insurer upon, investigating or dealing with any insured matter. Such appointment will be on terms that they have been instructed by the Insured as an independent contractor employed by the Insured and will in no way bind the Insurer.

30 Obligations of the Insured

- 30.1 The Insured is required to give the Insurer prompt notice in writing of every matter, Casualty, incident, claim, dispute or event likely to give rise to a claim under this policy. The Insured must give notice to the Insurer in writing of the commencement of any legal or arbitration proceedings against it as soon as practicable, but in no case later than 7 days after the Insured has received service or notice of the said proceedings.
- 30.2 On the occurrence of any matter, Casualty, incident, claim, dispute or event that may give rise to a claim under this policy, or of any legal or arbitration proceedings commenced against it, the Insured must take such steps as at the time appear proper for the purpose of averting or minimising any loss, damage, cost, expense or liability for which the Insured may be insured under this policy.
- 30.3 The Insured must comply with any request by the Insurer for any information, documents, reports, statements or inspections in relation to any insured matter, Casualty, incident, claim, dispute, event or proceedings.
- 30.4 All requests by the Insured for reimbursement of any losses, costs or expenses recoverable from the Insurer under the terms of this policy must be made to the Insurer within six months of the payment of the cost or expense by the Insured.

30.5 In the event that the Insured does not comply with the requirements of the Insurer or commits any breach of the obligations set out in this Clause 30, any eventual recovery by the Insured under this policy in respect of any claim, dispute or proceedings will be limited to the amount, as determined by the Insurer, that the Insured would have recovered if he had acted as required by the Insurer.

31 Bail

31.1 The Insurer is under no obligation to provide bail or other security on behalf of the Insured, except that where the same is provided it will be on such terms as the Insurer may consider appropriate and will not constitute any admission of liability by the Insurer for the claim in respect of which the bail or other security is given.

31.2 In no case will cash deposits be made by the Insurer.

31.3 It will be a condition of the provision of bail or other security on behalf of any Insured, that the Insured will indemnify the Insurer for any costs associated with the provision of such bail or other security and for any liability the Insurer may incur to a third party under or in connection with such bail or other security, providing that the indemnity will not extend to those amounts that the Insured would have been entitled to recover from the Insurer under the provisions of this policy had the Insured paid them directly.

31.4 It is a condition of the Insurer's consideration of the provision of bail or security that the Insured will remit to the Insurer any deductible that may apply to such claim and any Premium or other amount that is due to the Insurer.

32 Policy Subject to the Marine Insurance Act

32.1 This policy, and all contracts of Insurance made by the Insurer will be subject to and incorporate the provisions of the Marine Insurance Act 1906 of the United Kingdom, as amended by the Insurance Act 2015, and any statutory modifications thereof, except insofar as such Acts or modifications may have been excluded by this policy, or by any term of such contracts.

32.2 Upon its entry into force on 12th August 2016, the following provisions of the Insurance Act 2015 are excluded from this policy, save where the Insured is a Consumer. A "Consumer" is an individual who enters into the policy wholly or mainly for purposes unrelated to its business, trade or profession.

32.2.1 Section 8(2) and Schedule 1 of the Insurance Act 2015 are excluded entirely. As a result, any breach of the Insured's duty of fair presentation, as set out in clause 32.3 of this policy, shall entitle the Insurer to avoid this policy and refuse all claims if the Insurer, but for the breach, would not have entered into this policy at all or would have done so on different terms. If the Insured's breach of the duty of disclosure is deliberate or reckless, the Insurer does not need to return any Premium already paid. If the breach is not deliberate or reckless, the Insurer will return any Premium already paid.

32.2.2 Section 10 of the Insurance Act 2015 is excluded entirely and shall not apply to any warranty within this policy or the contract of Insurance. As a result, all warranties in this policy or the contract of Insurance must be strictly complied with and if the Insured or any party afforded the benefit of cover by the Insurer fails to comply with any warranty, the Insurer shall be discharged from liability from the date of the breach, regardless of whether the breach is subsequently remedied.

- 32.2.3 Section 11 of the Insurance Act 2015 is excluded and shall not apply to any term in this policy. If the policy includes a term which, if complied with, would tend to reduce the risk of loss of a particular kind, or at a particular location or particular time, then this must be strictly complied with. If it is not complied with, the Insurer's liability may be excluded, limited or discharged in accordance with this policy, even if the breach could not have increased the risk of the loss which actually occurred in the circumstances in which it occurred.
- 32.2.4 Section 13 of the Insurance Act 2015 is excluded. As a result, where this policy is entered into between the Insurer and the Insured and provides cover for any other party who is not a party to the contract, and where a fraudulent claim is made by or on behalf of any party afforded the benefit of cover by such policy, the Insurer shall be entitled to exercise its right to terminate the contract of Insurance in respect of the Insured and any party afforded the benefit of cover by the Insurer and retain any Premium paid.
- 32.2.5 Section 13A of the Insurance Act 2015, as introduced by the Enterprise Act 2016, is excluded and shall not apply to this policy. As a result, the Insurer shall not be in breach of the duty to pay claims in a reasonable time, where such breach is neither deliberate nor reckless. Where the Insurer fails to pay the claim in a reasonable time, but such failure is neither deliberate nor reckless, the Insured shall not be entitled to any remedy.
- 32.2.6 Section 14 of the Insurance Act 2015 is excluded. As a result, this policy or the contract of Insurance between the Insurer, the Insured and any party afforded the benefit of cover by the Insurer shall be deemed to be a contract of the utmost good faith, and any breach of the duty of the utmost good faith shall entitle the Insurer to avoid this policy or contract of Insurance.

32.3 The Insured or potential Insured and any agent:

- 32.3.1 must make to the Insurer a fair presentation of the risk in a reasonably clear and accessible way, by providing the Insurer with every material circumstance, which the Insured knows or ought to know, together with any additional particulars and information as the Insurer may require;

Any breach of 32.3.1 and 32.3.2 above shall entitle the Insurer to avoid this policy or contract of Insurance if, but for the breach, the Insurer would not have entered into this policy or contract of Insurance at all, or would have done so on different terms.

The Insured or potential Insured is obliged to disclose any change in any material information relating to this policy or contract of Insurance in accordance with the provisions stated in 32.3.1 and 32.3.2 above. This shall include but not be limited to, change of management, flag, classification society, government authority, nationality of crew, trading or operating area or nature of trade or operation. Upon such disclosure, the Insurer may amend the Insured's Premium rating or terms of insurance, or terminate this policy or contract of Insurance with effect from the time of disclosure. 33 No Liability until the Premium is Paid

Without prejudice to anything elsewhere contained in this policy, it will be a condition of the Insured's right of recovery in respect of any liabilities, costs or expenses that all Premium and other amounts whatsoever as may have become due from the Insured to the Insurer will have been paid in full, without any set-off or discount.

34 Set Off

Without prejudice to anything elsewhere contained in this policy, the Insurer will be entitled to set off any amount due from the Insured against any amount due to such Insured from the Insurer.

35 Settlement of Claims

As a condition of cover under this policy, the Insurer may conduct a survey or inspection of the Insured Yacht. Following such survey or inspection, the Insurer may in its sole discretion restrict cover under this policy or terminate Insurance for the Insured Yacht.

37 Limitation of the Insurer's Liability

Civil Liability for Bunker Oil Pollution Damage 2001 or Article 12 of the Nairobi International Convention on the Removal of Wrecks, 2007 to the extent that:

- 38.1.1 any payment under any such guarantee, undertaking or certificate is or would have been recoverable under a standard P&I War Risk Policy had the Insured complied with the terms and conditions thereof; or

41 Double Insurance

- 41.1 There will be no cover or right of recovery under this policy in respect of any claim that falls within the scope of cover provided under any other insurance in respect of the Insured or the Insured Yacht; or would be so covered but for a provision in such other insurance seeking or purporting to exclude or limit liability on the basis of double insurance.
- 41.2 There will be no cover or right of recovery under this policy in respect of any liabilities, costs or expenses relating to any franchise, deductible or deduction of a similar nature borne by the Insured under the provisions of such other insurance.

42 Interest and Consequential Loss

The Insured will have no right to recovery of interest on any claim he may have against the Insurer or any losses incurred by the Insured, of whatsoever nature, by reason of delay or failure to reimburse by the Insurer.

43 Sums Insurable under Hull Policies

Unless the Insurer has agreed in writing, the Insurer will not indemnify the Insured against any liabilities, costs or expenses in connection with the Insured Yacht against which that Insured would have been insured if the Insured Yacht had been fully insured for its Proper Value under a Hull Policy; and/or which would not be recoverable under such policies by reason of some franchise, deductible or deduction of a similar nature in such policies.

44 Exclusion of War Risks

There will be no recovery from the Insurer in respect of any liabilities, costs or expenses (irrespective of whether a contributory cause of the said liabilities, costs or expenses was any neglect on the part of the Insured, or on the part of the Insured's servants or agents) when the loss or damage, injury, illness, death or other accident in respect of which such liability arises or cost or expense is incurred, was caused by War Risks, strikes, locked-out workmen, or persons taking part in labour disturbances, riots or civil commotions, terrorism, or any person acting maliciously or from a political motive, confiscation, nationalisation, expropriation, deprivation or requisition.

45 Exclusion of Nuclear Risks

There will be no recovery from the Insurer in respect of any liabilities, costs or expenses, irrespective of whether a contributory cause of the same being incurred was any neglect on the part of the Insured or its servants or agents, when the loss or damage, injury, illness, death or other accident in respect of which such liability arises or cost or expense is incurred, was directly or indirectly caused by or arises from Nuclear Risks.

46 Sanctions Risks

- 46.1 There will be no recovery under this policy and the Insurer will not indemnify the Insured in respect of any liabilities, costs or expenses where the provision of Insurance or a payment by the Insurer may expose the Insurer to the risk of being subject to a sanction, prohibition or any adverse action by a state, international organisation or other competent authority.
- 46.2 There shall be no recovery from the Insurer and the Insurer shall not be liable to pay any claim or provide any benefit to the extent that the provision of such cover, payment of such claim or provision of such benefit would expose the Insurer to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the European Union, United Kingdom or United States of America.

47 Warranty of Seaworthiness

The Insured will keep the Insured Yacht in a proper condition at all times. 48 Imprudent Trading

There will be no recovery under this policy and the Insurer will not indemnify the Insured in respect of any liabilities, costs or expenses arising out of or as a result of the Insured Yacht carrying contraband, blockade running or being employed in any trade that is unlawful or in the opinion of the Insurer is imprudent, unsafe, unduly hazardous or improper.

49 Liabilities Excluded as a result of Wilful Misconduct

There will be no recovery under this policy and the Insurer will not indemnify the Insured in respect of any liabilities, costs or expenses arising out of or consequent upon wilful misconduct on the part of the Insured (being an act intentionally done or a deliberate omission by the Insured with the knowledge that the performance or omission by the Insured will probably result in injury or loss, or an act done or omitted in such a way as to allow an inference of a reckless disregard for the probable consequences).

50 Miscellaneous Exclusions

There will be no recovery under this policy and the Insurer will not indemnify the Insured in respect of any liabilities, costs or expenses, as follows:

- 50.1 liabilities to any Guests, visitors or catering crew where the Insured Yacht is moored on a permanent basis and is open to the public as a hotel, restaurant, bar or other place of entertainment;

51 Premium Rating and Payment

- 51.1 It is a condition precedent to any liability of the Insurer to indemnify the Insured under this policy that the Insured will have paid any Premium due on or before the date of the matter, Casualty, incident, claim, dispute or event giving rise to a potential claim by the Insured under this policy.

- 51.2 The Insurer will have a lien or other right of action against the Insured Yacht in respect of any sum of whatsoever nature, including Premium, owed by the Insured to the Insurer, notwithstanding that the Insurance of the Insured or in respect of any Insured Yacht may have ceased or been terminated or cancelled.
- 51.3 No claim of any kind whatsoever by the Insured against the Insurer will constitute any set-off against Premium or other sums of whatsoever nature due to the Insurer or will entitle the Insured to withhold or delay payment of any such sum.
- 51.4 The Insured will pay on demand to the Insurer, or its order, the amount of any Premium tax or other tax levied on or in connection with the Insurance or reinsurance provided by the Insurer to the Insured.
- 51.5 The policy will operate on the basis of cancelling returns only ('CRO terms') unless Laid-Up Returns ('LUR terms') are specifically agreed in writing by the Insurer. If the Insurance of the Insured Yacht ceases the Insurer will give the Insured credit for Premium paid or due from the date of such termination or cancellation to the end of the Period of Insurance on a pro-rata basis, except if the Insured Yacht becomes a total loss where the Insured will be liable for the full Premium due for the entire Period of Insurance.

52 Certificate of Insurance and Endorsement Slip

- 52.1 The Insurer will issue to the Insured a Certificate of Insurance, which will state the Period of Insurance and the terms and conditions on which the Insured Yacht has been accepted for Insurance. If appropriate, the Insurer will issue to the Insured an Endorsement Slip evidencing any variation to the terms of Insurance relating to the Insured Yacht.
- 52.2 Every Certificate of Insurance and every Endorsement Slip issued as aforesaid will be conclusive evidence and binding for all purposes as to the Period of Insurance, as to the terms and conditions on which the Insured Yacht is insured and as to the terms of any variation and the date from which such variation is to be effective.

53 Period of Insurance

Except as otherwise provided in this policy, the Insurance will begin on the date specified in the Certificate of Insurance at either noon GMT, or a different time as agreed in writing between the Insured and the Insurer, or at such time as the Insured first has an insurable interest in the Insured Yacht, and will continue until noon GMT on the date specified in the Certificate of Insurance.

54 Joint Insureds

- 54.1 Where any Insured Yacht is insured in the names or on behalf of more Persons than one (hereinafter referred to as Joint Insureds), they will be jointly and severally liable to pay all Premiums and other sums due to the Insurer in respect of such Insurance and the receipt by any Joint Insured of any payment by the Insurer will be deemed to be the receipt by all Joint Insureds jointly and will fully discharge the obligations of the Insurer in respect of such payment.

- 54.2 The conduct of any Joint Insured which would have entitled the Insurer to decline to indemnify the claim will be deemed the conduct of all the Joint Insureds.
- 54.3 Where any Insured Yacht is insured in the names of or on behalf of Joint Insureds, any limits on the cover provided by the Insurer and set out in the Certificate of Insurance or this policy will apply to Joint Insureds in the aggregate as if the Insured Yacht had been insured by the first named Insured on the Certificate of Insurance only.
- 54.4 Unless the Insurer has otherwise agreed, all communication from the Insurer will be sent to the first-named Insured on the Certificate of Insurance and such communication will be deemed to be within the knowledge of the Joint Insureds; and any communication from any Joint Insured to the Insurer will be deemed to have been made with the full approval and authority of all the Joint Insureds.

55 Assignment

No Insurance provided by the Insurer, and no interest under this policy or under any contract between the Insurer and the Insured, may be assigned without the written consent of the Insurer who will have the right in its discretion to give or refuse such consent without stating any reason or to give such consent upon any such terms or conditions as it may think fit. Any purported assignment made without such consent will, unless the Insurer in its discretion otherwise decides, be void and of no effect.

- 56.3 the Insured Yacht is missing for 10 days, becomes or is agreed by hull underwriters to be an actual or constructive total loss, or hull underwriters have agreed to pay to the Insured an unrepaired damage claim in respect of the Insured Yacht that exceeds the market value of the Insured Yacht without commitment immediately prior to the Casualty giving rise to such claim;
- 56.4 the Insurer is prohibited from insuring the Insured including any Joint Insured or co-insured by virtue of any sanction, prohibition or any adverse action by a state, international organisation or other competent authority;
- 56.5 the expiration of the Period of Insurance.

Condition

- 56.6 Upon the termination of Insurance the Insured will be and remain liable to pay to the Insurer all Premium and other sums due in accordance with the terms of this policy.

57.1 Where the Insured has failed to pay any amount due to the Insurer, the Insurer may give the Insured notice in writing requiring the Insured to pay such amount by any date specified in such notice, not being less than 7 days from the date on which such notice is given. If the Insured fails to make such a payment in full, on or before the date so specified, the Insurance will be cancelled forthwith without further notice.

57.2 Where the Insurance is cancelled in accordance with this clause, the Insured will remain liable to pay to the Insurer all Premium and other sums due in accordance with the terms of this policy. The Insurer will, with effect from the date of cancellation, cease to be liable for any claims of whatsoever kind under this policy in respect of the Insured Yacht and, as from the date of cancellation, any liability of the Insurer for such claims will terminate retrospectively and the Insurer will be under no liability to such Insured for any such claims or on any account whatsoever.

58 Cancellation of Insurance by Notice

The Insurer may, at any time, cancel the Insurance of an Insured Yacht by giving at least 14 days written notice of cancellation, effective from the expiry thereof, which notice shall include a reason for such cancellation. Where the Insurance is cancelled in accordance with this clause, the Insured will remain liable to pay to the Insurer all Premium and other sums due in accordance with the terms of this policy. The Insurer will, with effect from the date of cancellation, cease to be liable for any claims of whatsoever kind under this policy in respect of the Insured Yacht.

59 Omnibus

The Insurer may in its sole discretion agree to cover the Insured's liability, loss or expense, which would not be covered under this policy, but only to the extent that the Insurer considers any such recovery would be appropriate.
